The Home School Agreement specifies the aims, values and responsibilities of both the school and parent regarding the education of your child, as well as the school's expectations from the pupil themselves. It is important that parents take the time to share and discuss this document with their child.

The school will:

- Deliver an exciting, balanced and inspiring curriculum which meets the needs of your individual child.
- Offer your child learning experiences founded on Christian values that promote loving and caring for one another.
- Provide a range of after-school extra-curricular activities designed to enrich your child's experience.
- Ensure that all home learning tasks are given regularly, with an appropriate timescale, and reflect your child's learning needs, (details are given in the Homework Policy).
- Actively welcome parents/carers into the life of the school and ensure that teaching staff are always available, by mutual arrangement, to discuss any concerns you might have about your child's progress or general welfare.
- Keep you informed about the school's activities, policies and guidelines, other general school matters and about your child's progress in particular.
- Regularly review the way in which the school communicates with parents and make improvements as required.
