SPORTS, CLASS & OTHER NEWS

Class One

This week we are learning about 'sh' and 'ing' in phonics.

We have looked at shapes and we are drawing different symmetrical 2D shapes with different colours.

We went to see Alice in Wonderland and there was a big firework at the end!

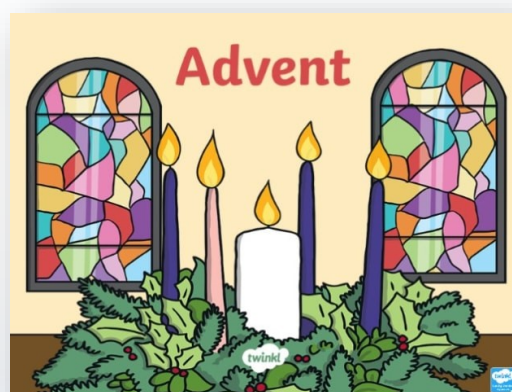

By Roman B & Emilia F

Class Three

This week we have made an Ancient Greece leaflet with details of clothes, how they lived and what the men and women looked like and men were treated better than women!

In literacy we are writing a non-chronological report about Red Panda's and other endangered animals.

By Amelia R & Archie M

Class Two

This week has been assessment week :(

In English we have been writing a story based on Leon on the Place Between.

In maths Year 3's have been subtracting and exchanging across 100 and Year 4's have been learning area.

The Christmas Theatre trip was exciting, funny, brilliant and good.
